

Rome was a kingdom for about 200 years.

Why was the area next to the Tiber River a good place for Rome to be founded?

What cultural values did Roman people have that helped Rome become strong?

Who was responsible for the safety of the Roman family?

The Etruscans

Etruscans showed up in "Italy" around

- a. 900 AD
- b. about when Ken was born
- c. 900 BC
- d. about the time it started snowing
- e.

They probably came from _____.

T F Etruscans treated women the same way Greeks treated women.

What did the Etruscans call their organization of city-states?

T F Rome had many Etruscan Kings.

The growing power of Rome caused the Etruscan League to _____.

Horatius at the Bridge (at the bottom of the Etruscan section - Scroll down to The Story of Horatius)

Why did the Etruscans decide to leave Rome and never come back?

How did the Romans chose to rule themselves after Tarquin the Proud left?